

Did you know that more than 46 million turkeys are eaten on Thanksgiving and 22 million on Christmas? Turkeys are protein-rich and low in fat. The U.S. Department of Agriculture predicts that about 240 million turkeys will be raised in the United States in 2019.