

There are approximately 600,000 acres of hay land in Georgia. Georgia forages (food for animals) include Bermudagrass, tall fescue, annual ryegrass, bahiagrass, and white clover, among others.